Altruistic Motivation: All mother sentient beings, especially those enemies who hate me, obstructors who harm me, and those who create obstacles on my path to liberation and all-knowingness; may they experience happiness, and be separated from suffering. I will quickly establish them in the state of the most perfect and precious Buddhahood. Repeat 3 times they rest in equanimity, free from attachment and aversion. Repeat three times.

Above the crown of my head, I visualize a white lotus with a moon-disk seat. On this is the syllable HUNG which transforms into a vara (dorje) with a HUNG in its center. From this HUNG light radiates, purifying the obscurations of all beings.

This light is offered to all the Buddhas and Bodhisattvas. The light returns and dissolves into the seed-syllable HUNG. The HUNG then transforms into Dorje Sempa, who is in essence our own kind Root Lama. Dorje Sempa is white in color and holds a dorje and bell. He sits gracefully in the half lotus position. He wears silken robes and all the precious ornaments.

Praise: Vajrasattva, Mahasattva, the Great Mind. The embodiment of all the Buddhas.

the Samantabhadra (Dharmakaya). I prostrate to the holder of the Vajra.

At Dorje Sempa’s heart level is a dorje on a moon-disk. At the center of the dorje is a HUNG (2) syllable surrounded by the 100 syllable mantra. The radiating light from the rotating mantra completely purifies the obscurations of all beings and they become Dorje Sempas.

WÔ-TRÔ DRO-WAY DRIB-PA KUN-JYANG NE/  DORJE DZIN-PAY SALA RAB-KÔ-CHING/

WÔ-ZER DE-DAG TSHUR-DÛ NGAG-TRENG-DANG/  SA-BON LA-THIM DE LE DÛ-TSI GYUN/

The light returns and dissolves into the mantra and the seed syllable HUNG. Nectar produced from these syllables flows through the right great toe of Dorje Sempa. It enters the crown of my head purifying all defilements, illness, and obscurations through the pores of the skin and two lower openings of my body. These obscurations leave the body in the form of a smoky dark liquid.

Then I am filled with nectar and completely purified as crystal.

away and you are purified!” Dorje Sempa then dissolves into light and is absorbed into myself through the top of my head.

I then becomes Dorje Sempa. Meditate on the union of appearance and emptiness.
The Golden Lineage Prayer

two actual accomplishments now. Please bestow the fruit of the effortless establishment of the two purposes.
I cultivate the altruistic thought to attain all sentient beings to the state of Vajradhara, the embodiment of the four kayas. Therefore I will receive the transmission and practice of the Phowa teachings, Jag tsuk ma, the Standing Blade of Grass, the swift path to forcefully attain enlightenment, even for those who are sinful.

The brief account of these Teachings.

Generally speaking, when we obtain this precious and complete human body, which has the complete qualities of the leisure and endowments, we should make extensive effort to study, contemplate, and engage in meditation practice of the precious Dharma to attain definite goodness. The reason behind this is that, although we have this body of leisure and endowments, the day of life is short. The galloping of the Lord of Death is fast, and the tendency towards laziness and postponing Dharma practices is powerful. If the condition of death comes suddenly, by exhausting life heedlessly, there is no place to escape, take refuge, except to go on to the next life. At that time, the wealth which you have accumulated, the loved ones, this cherished body, and so forth, during the experience of death, nothing will help. In such time the only refuge and protector is the precious holy Dharma. Regarding this precious dharma, the great compassionate teacher (Shakyamuni Buddha), depending on whether the trainees were of the family of the Hearers, Solitary Realizers, or Bodhisattvas, taught three types of vehicles.

The latter teachings are included in the two vehicles, the causal sutra vehicle and the fruition secret-mantra vehicle. In the secret-mantra vehicle there are methods to attain Enlightenment through the meditation practice of the Arising and Completion Stages. This profound path Phowa instruction is the only method to attain Enlightenment forcefully by even a sinful one, in an instant projection without need of long and diligent meditation practice.
Ruthless and senseless and so forth
Are those creators of the five heinous crimes
But if they meet with this path
Will be liberated perfectly.

and also, the great translator Marpa Lotsawa said:

Every one has the method
To attain enlightenment by meditation
But I have the method for Enlightenment
Without the need of meditation.

This refers to this kind of Phowa instruction.

There are many marvelous fascinating Phowa instructions, in different Tantra texts of new and old lineages. This is Phowa Jagtsukma instructions of transfer to the Pure Land of Dewachen, which is included in the Terma of ancient secret mantra lineage.

The Phowa Jak tsuk ma (the standing blade of grass) Lineage is one of the precious Phowa practices. In the eighth century, the Dharma king of Tibet, Chögyal Thrı-song Deu-Tsen invited the great Indian tantric master, Guru Padmasambhava, to Tibet and they successfully built the Samye monastery. Guru Padmasambhava ripened the minds of the king and his subjects through the Vajrayana vehicle. During that time, Guru Padmasambhava was residing in Chim-phu cave in the vicinity of Samye when an important minister of the king, Nyima, had a great tragedy. He had great wealth and power. He had two palaces and was bringing many things in and out of storage. He was doing this by the light of a lantern, when a small spark caused a fire which instantly burned down the entire palace, tragically killing thirteen people including his parents. All his horses, mules, cattle and other animals also perished in the fire.
Minister Nyima, thinking of the respect and honor that others show their parents, felt that he had committed the heaviest of sins by causing the deaths of his parents and others. He was tortured with this suffering.

The king, desiring to end the suffering of his minister, went to Chim-phu cave to request the help of Padmasambhava. Padmasambhava, by miraculous power went to the Pure Land of Dewachen to see Amitabha Buddha. He told Amitabha Buddha about the suffering of Minister Nyima and of all sentient beings. He asked Amitabha Buddha to give a special teaching to free them all from suffering. Amitabha Buddha gave this Phowa teaching to Padmasambhava and instructed that it should only be given to Minister Nyima for the time being, and sealed so it should not be given to others. Padmasambhava through miraculous power then came back to Chim-phu cave in Samye and gave this teaching to Minister Nyima who then gave up all worldly activities to practice Phowa. He achieved the signs and realization of Phowa. Through the path of Phowa, Minister Nyima's consciousness attained the Pure Land of Dewachen. At the time of death, he used the Phowa, and inconceivable marvelous signs appeared, such as rainbows in the sky and relics from his body.

Then this text was written on the palm leaf with the blood from the ring finger of Padmasambhava as the ink and the hair of Yeshe Sogyal as the pen. It was sealed seven times and wrapped with waterproof silk and so forth. Then it was hidden under the Black Mandala Lake which is located behind the East Dzag-lha-gampo Hill. The Naga king, Tsurana-Ratna, asked to be the guardian of this text. He was told by Padmasambhava that the future incarnation of Minister Nyima would be Nyida Sang-gye and that he must give the text to him.

Padmasambhava then left to go to the land of the Rakshas in the southwest. After more than 350 years, the incarnation of Minister Nyima was born as the son of a shepherd and given the name Nyida Sang-gye. While Nyida Sang-gye was growing up, he looked after the sheep, during which time he felt great compassion and wept tears of sorrow when the lambs and other animals would die. Amitabha Buddha appeared directly to him and said "Oh Son of a noble family, don't suffer. This is the profound teaching to alleviate your suffering and to benefit all sentient beings." Thus he gave this Phowa teaching.
Nyida Sang-gye then gave the Phowa to all the dying animals and often many miraculous signs appeared, such as rainbows and lights during the day.

The Naga king then came to Nyida Sang-gye and told him of the Hidden Text (Terma). Nyida Sang-gye took the Ter from the Black Mandala Lake and first gave the teaching to the Nagas in that lake. Through this teaching, most of the Nagas were liberated from the lower realms and reborn into the temporary high-goodness realms.

After that, this teaching was given to many human beings and they were established in liberation. This great knowledge-holder terton gave the lineage transmission to Nam-kha Gyaltsen, the great being, the keeper of this teaching. He gave it to the great realized Sangha Bhadra. He was not able to find a teacher to hold this lineage. He then received a prophesy from Vajrayogini to give the transmission to Ra Dzi Trime Lodro (Phago Trime Lodro) in Phan Po. He gave him this transmission. He matured and liberated thousands of disciples through this Phowa. Then he transmitted the lineage to Chö-je Sang-gye Gyaltsen of Dsing Ta Tak To. Then he transmitted this to Lopon Gyaltsen of Man-tse. He transmitted this lineage to Lho-drak Phuntsok Namgyal, the abbot of Yang Gri Gar monastery. He gave the lineage to Kunchog Ratna, the fully enlightened one, the first Drikung Kyabgon Chetsang and the great Vidyadhara Dharmakirti (Chökyi Dragpa), the first Drikung Kyabgon Chungtsang. These two great beings enriched these profound teachings and made them well-known. Since then this great Phowa teaching has become one of the profound teachings of the Drikung Kagyu Lineage. As explained in the sutra and tantra, the qualified disciples, with no doubt or hesitation about the lama or the teachings, experience the Phowa signs, such as opening the Brahma door, becoming unconscious, and so forth, simply by receiving the lung blessing transmission without even depending on the practice. The signs of this Phowa are experienced by many people and it is quicker than other Phowas. Because of this, the fame of the magnificent blessing of this great Drikung Phowas remains intact and not exaggerated. These two brothers gave the lineage to Lama Lhopa Tulku Trinley Namgyal, and so forth. The lineage was transmitted to the present time. This is the brief account of the history of the teachings.
Phowa Meditation Instructions

These instructions are in three sections; the preparation, taking refuge and cultivating Bodhicitta; the actual practice, the instruction of the actual meditation practice; and the conclusion, the beneficial effects of receiving the teachings: benefiting oneself and others.

The first section: taking refuge and cultivating bodhicitta.

In front in the space above myself is a profound and vast, jeweled throne supported by eight peacocks, on which is a lotus, sun and moon disks upon which sits the Amitabha Buddha who is in nature my root Lama. He is red in color, in Nirmanakaya form, wearing the three dharma robes, adorned by the major and minor marks, holding the offering bowl filled with nectar, by His hands, in the meditation position, sitting in the vajra position, radiating light from His body to all directions. He is surrounded by Padmasambhava, Terton Nyida Sang-gye and all the lineage lamas in the dress of monks. Clearly establish the visualization in this way.

I and all sentient beings from now on, until we achieve the ultimate enlightenment, take refuge in the root Lama Amitabha as the teacher, and take refuge in the instruction in the profound path of Phowa as the actual refuge, and take refuge in all the surrounding lineage lamas as the guide.

Thus in this way take refuge.

Please do not forsake me from your compassionate mind. Then I will attain the state of Buddhahood quickly for the benefit of all mother sentient beings. For that reason, I will receive the instructions and practice of the profound path of Phowa, fully liberating through the upper door.

With this prayer cultivate the aspiration and action bodhicitta. This is the preparation, taking refuge and cultivating Bodhicitta.
The second part: the actual meditation practice.

First, establish the body posture. Sit in the vajra position or the crossed-leg position, with the backbone as straight as an arrow. Expand your shoulders. Hold the two hands in the equipoise position and position the neck slightly bent to the front. The eyes gaze in the direction of the nose. The lips and teeth in their natural position. Thus make the seven position of Vairochana physically.

Then set the mind in this way.

OM SVABHAWA SHUDDAH SARWA D H A R M A SWABHAVA SHUDDO' HANG

The conceptual thought, the grasping and fixation on my body, this form of flesh, bone and blood; I should see as all-pervading emptiness, not existing by nature.

Within the state of all-pervading emptiness, I manifest as Vajrayogini, ruby red in color, with two faces. The main face is semiwrathful with three eyes, slightly showing the fangs. The hair is knotted loosely behind. I am wearing the five dry skulls.

The second face, in the right rear, is the face of a grunting sow. The right hand is raised, holding the copper cleaver knife and the left holds the skullcup filled with blood at the heart level and the katvanga at the shoulder.

I am standing on the right leg which is on the heart of a yellow corpse. The left leg bends and touches the right thigh. I am wearing the fifty freshly severed heads, and adorned with red silk and bone ornaments.

Visualize vividly clear but without substance.

In the center of my body is the central channel. It is blue outside, red inside, hollow like a tube of paper, red in color like a rose, transparent inside and out like a lamp, straight as a reed.

Thus it possesses the four characteristics.
It is the size of a medium arrow. The upper end is at the crown and the lower at the secret place, four fingers below the navel. At the heart level is a joint on which is a four petaled red lotus. Upon that sits a red ball, the nature of my consciousness. It is the size of a pea, fresh, light, vibrating, ready to leap.

Thus clearly visualize this way.

Above the opening of my crown is the Amitabha Buddha, the nature of my root Lama, red in color, in Nirmanakaya form, wearing the three dharma robes, adorned with the major and minor marks. He is sitting on the precious throne in the Buddha Maitreya position with his right great toe closing the opening of the crown chakra. He is the nature of wisdom and compassion, and radiating light. He is surrounded by all the Phowa lineage lamas. When you chant the name of each of the lineage lamas, strongly supplicate: "All you precious lamas, please grant the magnificent blessings. May I successfully practice the profound path of Phowa. Give me the magnificent blessings to be born in Dewachen, transferring my consciousness through the crown chakra at the time of death.

With this strong confidence and devotion, say the lineage prayer:

I supplicate to Padmasambhava. Grant me the magnificent blessings to practice the profound path of Phowa. Grant me the magnificent blessings to attain the heavenly realm by the quick path of Phowa. Grant the magnificent blessings that I and others will be born in Dewachen immediately after death.

Say this pray to each of the lineage masters.

The rest of the instruction will be received from the Lama during the Phowa instructions.

At the end of the session, all the Phowa lineage masters dissolve into Amitabha who then dissolves into me. I receive all the blessings and qualities. Then I become Amitayus. I then recite the long and short mantras of Amitayus.
The third part: the conclusion, the beneficial effects of receiving the teachings: benefitting oneself and others.

If one practices this way, it will not harm the life and you will get the great auspicious blessings to pacify the obstacles to life and so forth.

Regarding the beneficial effects, when you practice this way there are nine beneficial effects and one ultimate beneficial effect.

1. By the blessing of this practice one will not experience the great suffering of agony at the time of death.
2. One will not move the limbs.
3. One will not loose urine and stool.
4. One will not rotate the eyes upward.
5. One will not breathe heavily.

6. One will not produce perspiration at the heart.
7. One will not make a tight fist.
8. One will not have the eyes gazing into space.
9. One will die easily in body posture.

This was said by Rechunga the Lord of Secrets.

The ultimate benefit is that even the sinful one who committed the heinous crimes, by meeting this forceful path of Phowa, will be born in the formless realm and cease suffering for the time being. Because of this they will not be stained by evil deeds, so there will be no ripening results and then they will choose the womb of universal monarch, god, human, or so forth, and will be freed from samsaric existence. Then you will be born wherever you desire, to connect with Buddhahood.

Thus is said in the Dorje Den Shi (Four Vajra Seat) tantra:
"If we receive the proper Phowa transmission when alive or have the experience of practice; then at the time of death, even if there is no lama to perform the Phowa, just by focusing our mind at the brahma door, the consciousness will exit from there and even the very sinful one will attain Buddhanhood forcefully."

This is a very pure instruction received from the former great teachers.

Dedication Prayer
by
Lord Jigten Sumgon

Glorious, holy, venerable, precious, kind root and lineage Lamas, Divine assembly of Yidams and assemblies of Buddhas, Bodhisattvas, Yogins, Yoginis and Dakinis dwelling in the ten directions,
Please hear my prayer.

By the power of this vast root of virtue,
May I benefit all beings through my body, speech and mind.
May the afflictions of desire, hatred, ignorance, arrogance, and jealousy not arise in my mind.
May thoughts of fame, reputation, wealth, honor and concern for this life not arise for even a moment.
May my mind-stream be moistened by loving-kindness, compassion, and bodhicitta;
and through that may I become a spiritual master with good qualities equal to the infinity of space.
May I gain the supreme attainment of Mahamudra in this very life.
May the torment of suffering not arise even at the time of my death.
May I not die with negative thoughts.
May I not die confused by wrong view.
May I not experience an untimely death.
May I die joyfully and happily in the great luminosity of the Mind-as-such and the pervading clarity of Dharmata.
May I, in any case, gain the supreme attainment of Mahamudra at the time of death or in the bardo.

By the virtues collected in the three times by myself and all beings in samsara and nirvana, and by the innate root of virtue, may I and all sentient beings quickly attain unsurpassed, perfect, complete, precious Enlightenment.

Long life prayers

His Holiness the Dalai Lama XIV

For this realm encircled by snow covered mountains, you are the source of every benefit and bliss without exception,
Tenzin Gyatsho, you who are one with Avalokiteshvara,
May you remain steadfast until samsara’s end.

His Holiness Kyabgon Kunzang Trinley Lhundrub (Chetsang Rinpoche)

Embodyment of the three Precious Jewels,
Holding the teachings of the Buddha—emanation of the Lotus Holder,
Having insight as the eye of the true nature of the noble meaning,
May Trinley Lhundrub live for hundreds of kalpas.
His Holiness Kyabgon Chökyi Nangwa (Chungsang Rinpoche)

Saint Manjushri, the Lord of Speech,
Who manifests in order to hold the teachings of the Buddha
And raise the precious lamp of the Buddha’s teaching,
May Chökyi Nangwa live for hundreds of kalpas.

Khenpo Konchog Gyaltsen Rinpoche

You who are richly endowed with the glorious wealth of Dharma knowledge,
Who through reflecting and meditating have actualized the self-aware absolute reality,
And shines with the hundred-thousand light rays of ethical discipline of the Buddha-Dharma,
May you, great Abbot Ratna Dwaza, live long.
